Effect an equitable administration of any general Valuation in Ireland. A.D. 1908.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. Until a general revaluation of all the tenements and hereditaments in Ireland shall have been completed and shall be in operation, no effect shall be given to any additional sum that may have been added to the valuation of business premises by reason of a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquors being 10 attached thereto, or on account of the volume of business done therein.

2. This Act may be cited as the Valuation (Ireland) Act, 1908.
